

MEDITATION

And Overcoming Negative Emotions

BRAHM
Education Centre

Course Instructor:

Piya Tan is a full-time lay teacher specializing in early Buddhism, and has run numerous mediation courses and retreats for tertiary students and adults since 1980s. In 1992 he taught mediation course at the University of California at Berkeley, USA. Currently, he is doing an on-going translation project of the Pali Sutta in the "Sutta Discovery" series. He is married with two young sons.

The Buddha taught a wide range of meditation methods suitable for different personalities and the nature of the person's difficulties. This hands-on theory and practice course at intermediate-level meditation will comprise two parts:

- 1) A reflective study of the meditation method as found in the Pali Suttas
- 2) A guided practice of the meditation method (including feedback)
